To all to whom these presents shall come—
GREETING.

and Forests.

WHEREAS by section 50 of the "Water Act" it is provided that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may incorporate a tract of land and the owners thereof into an improvement district:

And whereas the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has, by Order in Council made pursuant to the said Act, been pleased to order that the tract of land hereinafter described and the owners thereof be incorporated into an improvement district under the said Act and has made further provision to the tenor and effect hereinafter appearing:

NOW KNOW YE that by these presents We do hereby order and proclaim:—

1. The tract of land in the New Westminster Land Registration District and the New Westminster Land District, more particularly described as those portions of Sections 11, 12, 13, and 14 of Township 2, bounded on the east by the Serpentine Canal, so called, on the west and north-west by the Serpentine River, and all subdivisions of the said tract and the owners of land in the said tract are incorporated into an improvement district under the "Water Act" and subject to the provisions thereof and to the conditions hereinafter contained.

2. The said improvement district shall be known as the "Central Surrey Drainage District."

3. The objects of the said improvement district shall be the dyking and drainage of land and the construction, acquisition, maintenance, and operation of works for those purposes and all matters incidental thereto.

4. There shall be three Trustees of the said improvement district.

5. The persons qualified to vote at the first election of Trustees shall be Canadian citizens who are twenty-one years of age or older and are not disqualified from voting in an election under the "Provincial Elections Act" and are owners of land in the tract of land hereinbefore described, and the persons qualified to be candidates at the said election shall be the persons qualified as aforesaid to vote and their wives and husbands.

6. Dorothy Jean Morris, of Cloverdale, B.C., shall be Returning Officer for the first election of Trustees. She shall call a general meeting of the persons who are qualified as aforesaid to vote and shall, at least seven days before the date of the said meeting, cause to be mailed to the last-known address of each owner of land in the aforesaid tract of land a notice signed by her giving the date, time, and place of holding the said meeting. The Returning Officer shall be chairman of the said meeting, and she shall have power to determine whether or not any persons who desire to vote are qualified to do so. She shall have power to determine the procedure to be followed at the said meeting and the method of taking the votes. Each qualified voter shall be entitled to vote for three candidates and to cast as many votes for each of the three as there are acres in the parcel or parcels of land held by the voter. The Returning Officer shall declare the result of the election and shall advise the Comptroller of Water Rights of the said result.

7. The candidate elected as Trustee for whom the greatest number of votes is cast at the general meeting called pursuant to clause 6 hereof shall hold office until the annual general meeting of 1957, the candidate elected for whom the second greatest number of votes is cast shall hold office until the annual general meeting of 1956, and the candidate elected for whom the third greatest number of votes is cast shall hold office until the annual general meeting of 1955, but should there be nominated no more than three candidates for the office of Trustee, or should any two or more candidates receive an equal number of votes, then the Returning Officer shall have power to and shall declare which of the candidates elected shall hold office until the next, the second, and the third succeeding annual general meetings respectively.

Therefore its objective is to retain the vision of revealed truth and embrace further revealed truth in due course by obedience to the voice of the Holy Spirit which must take precedence over all organization. 4028-ap29
